

and the School of Environmental Studies at Queen's University, offers an opportunity to a postdoctoral fellow specializing in environmental stable isotope geochemistry. Initially, this is a one-year position starting in January 2024, but there is flexibility on this timeline. Applications will be evaluated on a rolling basis until the position is filled.

starting time would be January 2024, but there is flexibility on this timeline. Applications will be evaluated on a rolling basis until the position is filled.

If interested, please contact me at the email address below.

Sincerely,

Assistant Professor in Environmental Geochemistry
Dept. Geological Sciences & Geological Engineering; School of Environmental Studies
Queen's University
Ph: 613-533-6172

Queens University, Kingston Ontario, K7L 3N6

