Report on Recruitment and Enrolment of

- x It was noted that Dr. BenoitAntoine Bacon has left the role to serve as Carleton University's President.
- x T. Harris informed the group of his involvement with the PICARDI report and that he has reread the Truth and Reconciliation Committee (TRC) report to identify his priorities.
- x Changes happening at the university were noted; there has been Indigenous representation in the search for a new Dean of the Faculty of Law, and on the Principal Search Committee.
- x T. Harris spoke of the background and board experience of the two new members of the Board of Trustees, both of which identify as Indigenous.
- x It was noted that the Diversity and Inclusion at Queen's site has been launched. This site was developed to help communicate the progress of the PICARDI recommendations being fulfilled.
- x Although not committed through a press release, there has been an increase in funding for Indigenous student awards.

- x The framework was last revised in 2016. It should serve as a framework for students and faculty learning in terms of curriculum but also curriculum experiences and the student experience as a whole.
- x One of the highest ambitions outlines is creating a more inclusive learning experience for all students at Queen's. This includes identifying who/what is being represented and what is not being represented, striving
