answers are wrong. If you do the quiz on your own and without aids, this will give you valuable feedback about your own learning.

There are 12 quizzes in total and your best 10 will count towards your final grade. You may choose to miss or forego the results of two quizzes, without documentation.

After that, you will receive '0' for a missed quiz and quiz grades are final. The only exception to this rule is if there are documented serious extenuating circumstances (see Special Accommodations).

In PSYC100, this means that while you can and should discuss your readings, on line lessons, and lab prep work with your peers, you must write up and hand in your own lab prep work IN YOUR OWN WORDS, not work copied verbatim from someone else. You may complete your quizzes with a friend, or look up answers, but remember that the midyear and final exam are written individually without any aids. The quizzes are intended to prepare you for th

- Contact Learning Strategies Development for help in preparing for, and writing, short-- and long--answer and multiple--choice exams. They are located in the Learning Commons at Stauffer Library. Visit www.queensu.ca/qlc/ for learning strategies workshops and study tips.
- There are copies of previous midyear and final exams available. However, the bi--weekly quizzes are excellent preparation for the multiple--choice portions, and the learning lab work will help you prepare for the short--answer questions. If you stay on top of the material, do the quizzes as described above, and practice short--answer questions, you will be well prepared.
