

The final Exam will take place in the final examination period, as specified in the University regulations governing examinations (see the Faculty of Arts & Science Calendar). No reference or supplementary material will be allowed, and the exam will be proctored. Note that you will only be required to write for a minimum of 90 minutes during this final exam.

Students who cannot write an exam during the December or April exam period due to a serious, extenuating circumstance (with the supporting documentation required as outlined above) must be available to write a deferred exam during the Psychology Department's Make up Exam period.

Please see the following webpage under "Exam Absence" for additional information: <http://www.queensu.ca/psychology/Undergraduate/psycdepartmentalpolicies.html>

The exams are not cumulative. You are examined solely on the assigned readings and lecture content occurring before the date of the exam.

In this course, some components will be graded using numerical percentage marks. Other components will receive letter grades, which for purposes of calculating your course average will be translated into numerical equivalents using the Faculty of Arts and Science approved scale:
