Teaching Assistant Positions
Fall/Winter 2024-2025

The following Teaching Assistant positions will be available in Fall 2024:

RELS 205: Religion meets Empire

Religion and other belief systems played a crucial role in governing empires, ranging from homogenization to accepting diversity - and even to both approaches or strategies in the same empire. The course critically assesses constructions of "religion" as a category and concerning inequality and diversity in global history.

The following Teaching Assistant positions will be available in Fall/Winter 2024-2025:

RELS 131: World Religions / Religious Worlds

Introduces religion in India, China and Japan; also the movements of Judaism, Christianity, Islam and Humanism.

These are online courses administered by the Office of Continuing and Distance Studies.

The teaching assistants that we are seeking are for the support of online courses. Some training and preparation is needed before the start of the course. Candidates must be prepared to work outside the regular 9-5 work week, and have access to the internet and a computer that meets minimum requirements. Experience with learning management systems (eg OnQ) and videoconferencing software (eg. Zoom or Adobe Connect) would be an asset.

The number of Teaching Assistants required will be determined by course enrollment.

Please forward your application and other relevant material in one PDF file to school.of.religion@queensu.ca on or before Friday, August 9, 2024.

Applications should be submitted as one single PDF file and include a complete and current curriculum vitae, list of relevant experience of online teaching, unofficial transcripts, and a one paragraph statement why you want to TA for the particular course.

For more information, please contact Levanna Schonwandt, Departmental Administrator, School of Religion at school.of.religion@queensu.ca
