International students tuition fees remain deregulated, falling outside the funding framework of the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities. As part of the University's commitment to clearly communicate well in advance of making offers of admission, the University will continue to provide information to prospective students and their families regarding the cost of education in Ontario. The University will continue to provide information to prospective students and their families regarding the cost of education in Ontario. The University will continue to provide information to prospective students and their families regarding the cost of education in Ontario.

recommended that tuition for Master of Science in Occupational Therapy and Master of Science in Physical Therapy be increased, although the program targets Canadian students. It is also recommended that there be no increase to the international tuition fees in the recently introduced Master of Public Health program in order to stay competitive with similar programs at other Ontario institutions.
