

Report of the Queen's University M

great opportunity to express ourselves and stand up for not just our rights, but for the rights of others it is our priority a fortiori to make this a campaign that strives not just for a Muslim-friendly campus, but also for other minorities who have been through similar or even worse experiences. We, as devout and practicing Muslims, as people from all types of diverse backgrounds with a common cause, and from our basic bond as human beings, are campaigning for a campus that condemns all forms of discrimination. Thank you.